penetrated my pores,
expanded my whole being.*

*Greece is just so unbelievably beautiful!
There's so many islands, you're spoiled for choice.
I love Santorini, it felt like being in another world.
I've never seen so many stars in my life!
It is a country with such incredible history.
It created the world as we know it today.
What's not to love?*

– Gerard Butler –

Scattered in the Sea, you can see the little indigo islands – Andros, Syros, and more, and more.
